Food Technologist

February 2016

Job Description

Position description: Reporting to the Director of Research & Development, this position provides product development support and R&D knowledge to two company-owned prepared foods protein processing facilities in Albertville, AL.

Responsibilities:

• Overseeing all stages of product development.
• Developing samples and prototypes of new products.
• Commercialization of new products.
• Design, coordinate and execute plant trials and new product runs.
• Create and maintain product specifications.
• Modify existing product formulas for cost optimization.
• Assist in product and process improvements.
• Interact with Quality Assurance, Production and Sales departments.
• Other special projects as needed.

Job Requirements:

Education and Experience

• Bachelor’s degree or M.S. in food science or related field
• 2+ years of food industry experience desired with B.S. degree. No experience required with M.S.

Computer Skills

• Basic computer skills. Knowledge of Microsoft Excel, Word and Power Point.
• Effective written and oral communication skills.

TO APPLY: Submit your resume to Info@qualityfoods.net

Albertville Quality Foods is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Albertvillequalityfoods.com